

GULF OF THE FARALLONES NATIONAL MARINE SANCTUARY
AND FARALLONES MARINE SANCTUARY ASSOCIATION PRESENT:

Sanctuary Naturalist 2009 Volunteer Training

SHARE YOUR PASSION FOR THE OCEAN

APPLY TO BECOME A VOLUNTEER NATURALIST
& SANCTUARY AMBASSADOR

Become a sanctuary volunteer and inspire others to discover the Gulf of the Farallones National Marine Sanctuary—one of the richest marine ecosystems in the world. During our 4-day training, you will learn how to interpret sanctuary exhibits, feed animals in our cold saltwater aquaria, and collect and view plankton from the tide station pier in the Presidio. Join us and discover the sharks, whales, seabirds and all the diversity of life just outside the Golden Gate!

Ocean enthusiasts wanted! Application details below.

When

Applicants should save the following dates & times:

April 23rd, 7 pm - 9 pm (Th)

April 25th, 9 am - 1 pm (Sa)

April 30th, 7 pm - 9 pm (Th)

May 2nd, 9 am - 1 pm (Sa)

Where

Training will be held at the sanctuary San Francisco office in the Presidio with a field trip to the California Academy of Sciences.

Photo by Ken Balcomb

APPLICATIONS MUST BE RECEIVED BY 5PM, APRIL 10TH

Applications can be downloaded at:
<http://farallones.org/documents/NC2009.pdf>
or requested by contacting Justin Holl at
(415) 561-6622 x308 or justin.holl@noaa.gov

